

Hospitecnica Ltd, founded in 1991, operates in the field of hospital sterilization and since 1998 it is the authorized distributor of GETINGE sterilization – disinfection products in Greece.

The management of Hospitecnica Ltd. recognizing that bribery is a serious violation of corporate ethics, which undermines the trust of customers, partners and society, is committed to maintain and implement an anti-corruption and anti-bribery system in accordance with the requirements of the International Standard ISO 37001:2016.

The management of the company is committed to:

- Take full responsibility for tackling bribery and is committed to supporting the anti-bribery policy.
- Expressly prohibit the giving or receiving of gifts, grants or other benefits that may be construed as bribery in any form.
- Provide transparency about its operations, including its relations with third parties.
- Provide all employees with the necessary training to recognize and deal with bribery.
- Establish monitoring and evaluation mechanisms to ensure effective implementation of the anti-bribery policy and to address violations.
- Require associates and third parties to comply with its anti-bribery policy and actively cooperate in responding to incidents of bribery.

The management of Hospitecnica Ltd is fully aware that bribery is an undesirable practice that threatens its values and moral integrity. With determination and dedication, it is committed to strictly enforce its anti- bribery and anti- corruption policy and ensure that every member of the organization acts with honesty, transparency and responsibility. Through this commitment, Hospitecnica Ltd strengthen the trust with its partners, clients and the community by creating a working environment based on transparency.

The Management